A, actually I could talk to my family
If, if you don't mind, you can come to my place
Your Majesty~
Sorry, I mis-understood you that day I apologise
Queen

You Majesty, you can live in my place next, my bed is large enough and I can help you review in the night
Oh! Nice. You're indeed my queen
Ahaha, that's what SHOULD happen, what was I fantasying about

Can Zhen bring my concubine too?
Never!

Damn! The feeling of not having our numbers... is really annoying!

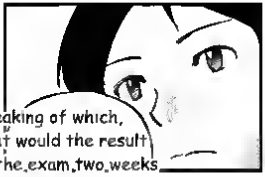
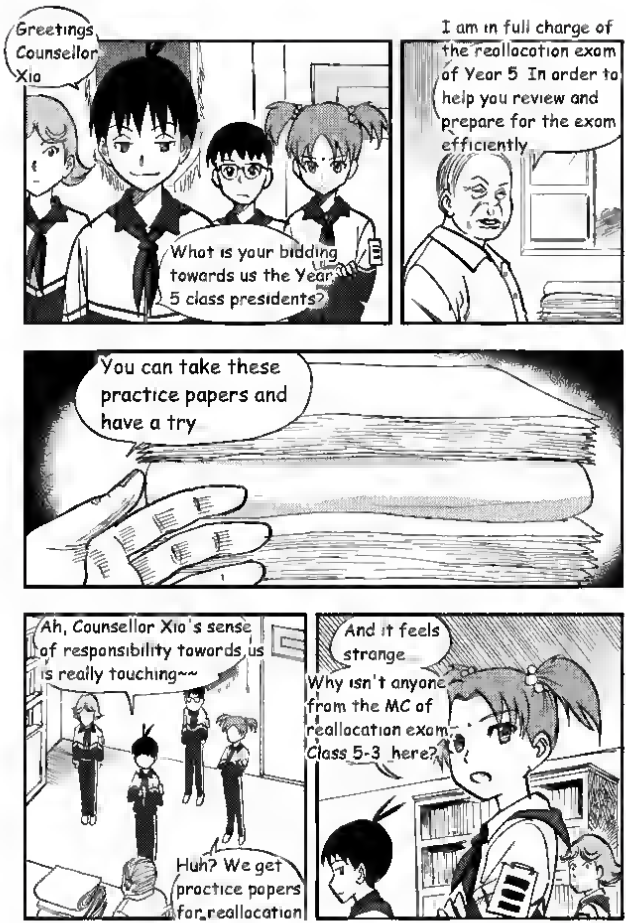
Educational & Student Affairs Division



Speaking of which, what would the result of the exam, two weeks after be like?

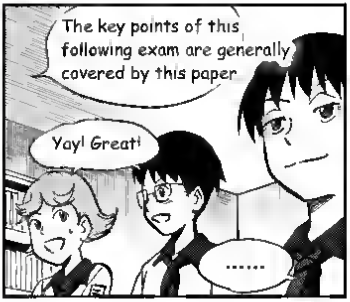


Greetings Counsellor Xia
What is your bidding towards us the Year 5 class presidents?
I am in full charge of the reallocation exam of Year 5 In order to help you review and prepare for the exam efficiently
You can take these practice papers and have a try
Ah, Counsellor Xia's sense of responsibility towards us is really touching~~
Huh? We get practice papers for reallocation exam?
And it feels strange
Why isn't anyone from the MC of reallocation exam Class 5-3 here?

President of calss 2, you seem to have many useless words
President of Class 5-3 is probably late again, like always.

Humph
Any other instructions Counsellor Xia?

No, just remember to finsh this paper well and digest its contents



The key points of this following exam are generally covered by this paper
Yay! Great!

OK, now you can leave with the papers. I've got work to do

Great, we won't be as nervous as before for the exam.
The counsellor is really nice, now I can persuade my family to relax...
Humph, I only know the counsellor is not a good man
I'm not sure about what he wants in detail, but I know he will tear Class 5-3 apart for sure.
Weak guys only see short term benefits.
But you seem to know something, Comrade Discipline Commissioner.
I bet, no matter how much effort Class 5-3 put in the exam, they'll be divided anyway.
The counsellor may never wanted to give these papers to Class 5-3 from the very beginning.
Great Ying
What do you intend to do then?
Humph...

Nothing Classes like 5-3 should be left to struggle for survival on their own
.....

How cruel, Comrade Discipline Commissioner

I thought you were already their friend
Humph

Sigh, why would I get involved in this kind of farce

A disingenuous counsellor plus a bunch of students and parents who have nothing but grades in mind, what kind of slap-stick are they going to make
Nah, never mind

No matter how it goes we Class 5-4 will never fail.

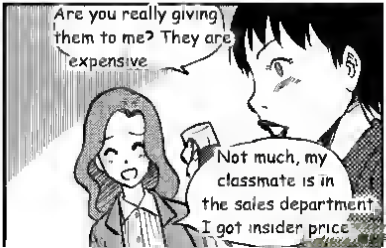
Nuts

Eh!?
What's this?

Ms Zhang, these are some cosmetics my classmate brought back from the provincial capital. I have more than enough so I thought I could share with you
Ah, they are nowhere to find here



Are you really giving them to me? They are expensive
Not much, my classmate is in the sales department I got insider price

Ms Wei...
I think yaur class needs some extra Maths classes
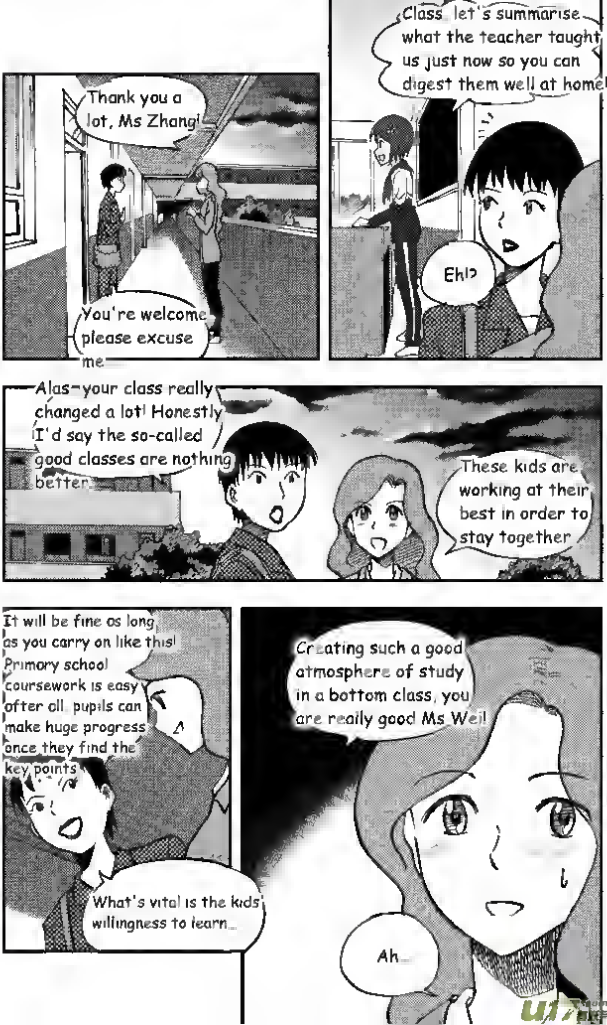
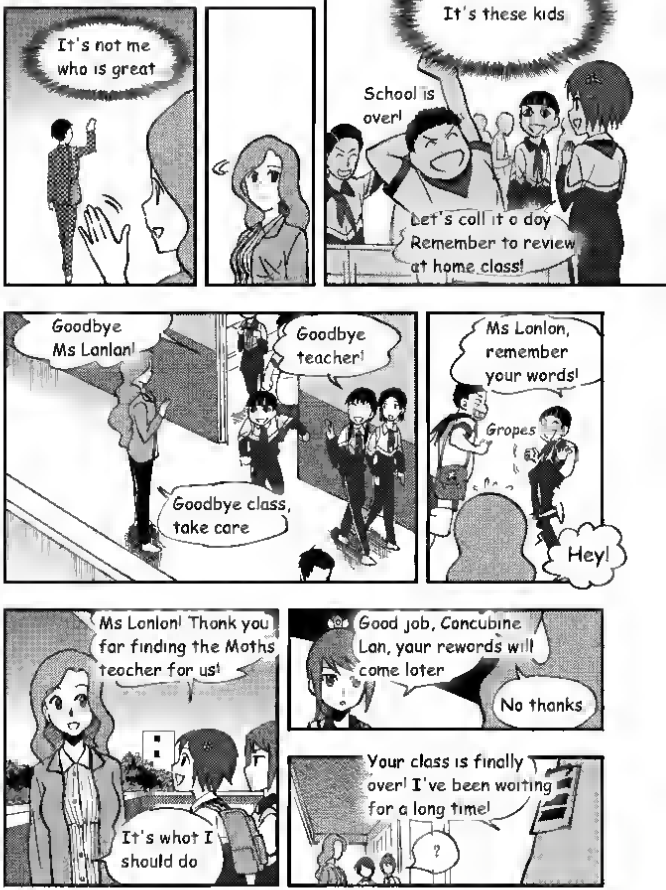
I'll give an extra one-section lecture everyday after school until the exam
Great!
Thank you Ms Zhang!!
Ah...I spent all my salary on these cosmetics *crying...
Let's call it a day. Dismiss.
Class 5-3
Stand UP!
The national salute!
Eh? What's this...?
啪!啪!啪!



Class, let's summarise what the teacher taught us just now so you can digest them well at home!
Eh!?
Thank you a lot, Ms Zhang!
You're welcome, please excuse me
Alas~your class really changed a lot! Honestly I'd say the so-called good classes are nothing better
These kids are working at their best in order to stay together
It will be fine as long as you carry on like this! Primary school coursework is easy, after all, pupils can make huge progress once they find the key points
What's vital is the kids' willingness to learn
Creating such a good atmosphere of study in a bottom class, you are really good Ms Wei!
Ah



It's not me who is great
It's these kids
School is over!
Let's call it a day Remember to review at home class!
Goodbye Ms Lanlan!
Goodbye teacher!
Goodbye class, take care
Ms Lanlan, remember your words!
Gropes
Hey!
Ms Lanlan! Thank you for finding the Maths teacher for us!
It's what I should do
Good job, Concubine Lan, your rewards will come later
No thanks
Your class is finally over! I've been waiting for a long time!

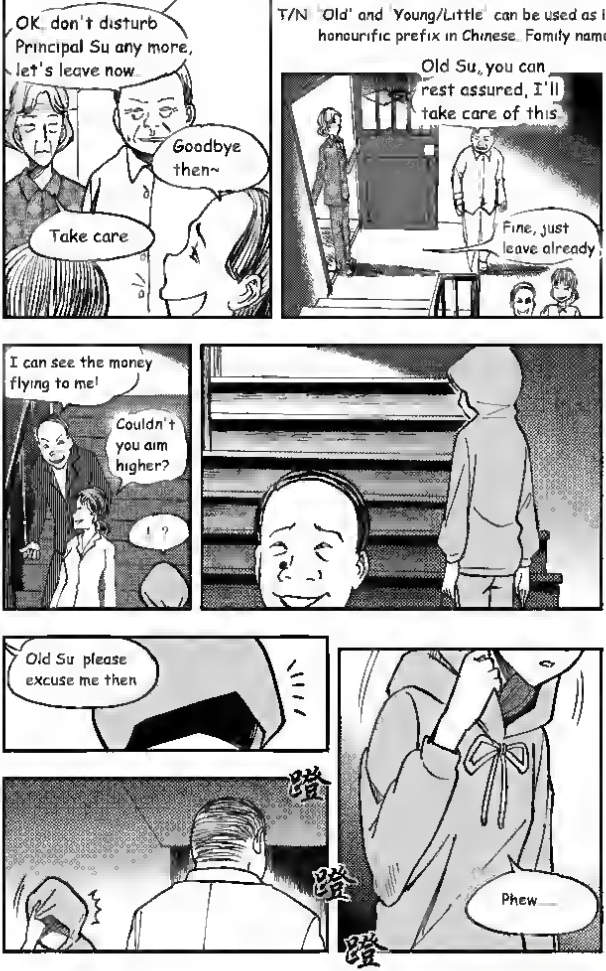
Here, the school gave out a set of practice papers, have them photocopied and distributed in your class
Eh? Prez of class 2?
Queen, have you seen it before?
Never
As expexted
That damn old man did it too obviously
This one should be the female teacher who Sis Ling and I ran into when being sexually harassed
She's indeed cute and has a good shape could it be the sole reason of Counsellor Xia's behaviours?

We'll finish these papers carefully! You're really kind!
Uh...
It's not kindness
I just thought Sis Ling would do the same thing
OK, now my job is done, do your papers well
Prez of class 2!
Thank you a lot!
Let's have a fair match this time too!
Humph
With pleasure

Hello? Yeah... it's me...
Click
Yes, bring your stuff to my ploce tonight, we'll go together...
Yes, right, just do os I told you by then...
No problem, there shouldn't be any problem, rest assured
Alas, I'm getting busy...
Phew——
Old woman, I devoted so much to the school, you can't treat me unfoirly...
Hehehe, just wait for a while

Mine.....
Everything is mine!
Hahahaha...
啪
Clap
It's great that you agreed to it, Principal Su!
Yes indeed!



OK, don't disturb Principal Su any more, let's leave now
Goodbye then~
Take care
T/N: 'Old' and 'Young/Little' can be used as informal honourific prefix in Chinese. Family name only.
Old Su, you can rest assured, I'll take care of this Fine, just leave already
I can see the money flying to me!
Couldn't you aim higher?
Old Su please excuse me then
噔
噔
噔
Phew~~~
Step x3

Principal Su, I'm here
Alas_ Ling! Come in please
Dad asked me to give you these cornflour from my hometown
That's so kind_ Come in_ it's cold outside_
OK
